Dear Friends,

As we celebrate our 6<sup>Th</sup> anniversary at "Sisters", my staff and I would like to take this opportunity to thank our clientele, old friends and new for your continued patronage. Where has the time gone? We have lived through a roller coaster of events.

In an extraordinary election we have chosen a new president. Soon after, our nation withstood a gruesome terrorist attack. Then banded together, united in cause, we have watched as our nations bravest men and woman defended our allies and homeland with tremendous honor and dignity.

Through out these tumultuous times the American spirit remains resilient. We continue to celebrate our victories. Millennium festivities, Super Bowl games and Olympic events continue. This is what America stands for.

Our personal triumphs and tragedies have molded us into a strong and caring community. Your generosity has allowed us to stock the shelves at Damien's Pantry in Wareham every Thanksgiving. You have delighted New Bedford's foster care children each Christmas by opening your hearts and filling their stockings with all of their Christmas wishes. We have sponsored makeovers for cancer patients and raised thousands of dollars for the American Cancer Society to promote awareness, provide comfort and develop a cure. And after the terrorist attack, we again raised much need money for families of police and firefighters in New York City. On a local level, many anonymous families struck by personal devastation have felt your love and support through your generous donations.

To establish a business in such a caring community is a blessing. Our thanks to our friends old and new who make up our clientele, and of course to our dedicated team of professionals.

Our promise is to offer a refuge from daily stress. We invite you to attain a state of beauty and well being at Sisters Hair & Skin Care, where we will continue to bring you the most innovative techniques and highest quality skin, hair, nail and body products and services. Thank you for allowing us to be part of your lives.

Sincerely,

Paula Church

Police Pursuit

Rochester Police Rack Up Arrests

Rochester Police Officer William Chamberlain was involved in a motor vehicle pursuit that ended with the arrest of Steven Gauthier of East Falmouth. Officer Chamberlain attempted to stop Mr. Gauthier on Mary's Pond Road at about 6:15 on Saturday, August 24 on motor vehicle violations. Mr. Gauthier refused to stop and proceeded into Wareham. During this time, speed did not exceed 45 MPH. Officer Chamberlain called for assistance from Wareham Police and the pursuit continued onto Route 25 heading towards Bourne. Massachusetts State Police used stop sticks to deflate two of the vehicle's tires. The vehicle continued over the Bourne Bridge leaving a trail of debris from the tires and wheels. With the vehicle on just the right side rims, Mr. Gauthier pulled into the Bourne State Police Barracks and was arrested without incident by Officer Chamberlain, Officer Chris Parks of the Wareham Police Department, and members of the State Police.

On the cover: This pesky little critter is none other than "Buck the Chuck," better known as simply "Buck Chuck," the official mascot for the 2002 Rochester Country Fair and its Woodsmen Show held this past weekend. "Buck" is seen here prowling a local book store before going out to greet his adoring public. The third annual event was another rousing success and residents from Rochester and surrounding towns enjoyed three days of fun-filled activities in the town center. (More photos available at www.rochesterma.com).

Above: Members of Mattapoisett Pack 53 Cub Scouts gathered for a "Community Service Cleanup Day" back in April at the Town Wharf. The scouts decorated large tin cans to be used as "ash trays." The cans were then presented to the Ice Cream Slip for disposal of cigarettes in the area. There will be a sign up for all boys for the new Cub Scouting year on Thursday, September 19 at the Mattapoisett Congregational Church Hall at 6:30 pm. If you have any questions, please call Sarah Piehler (508-758-2584) or Carol Leidhold (508-758-9089).

Mr. Gauthier had three arrest warrants from the state of Florida and one from Massachusetts. Mr. Gauthier was held without bail until his appearance in Wareham District Court on Monday. He was to be charged with three counts of being a fugitive from justice, operation of a motor vehicle with revoked license as habitual traffic offender, refusing to stop for police, and other motor vehicle charges.

On August 16, Rochester Police Officers John Barnes and Jeff Archambeault obtained an arrest warrant for a Robert Fiano of New Bedford. Mr. Fiano was under investigation for several break-ins including a break at Knight and Look Campground in Rochester. Working with police from area departments, information was developed that led to arrests in Freetown and New Bedford, including the theft of several firearms. Mr. Fiano will be charged with 15 counts of breaking and entering, firearms possession, and larceny over $250.

Rochester Police also responded to the Boy Scout Camp located off Mary's Pond Road last week after receiving a call from a resident reporting several youths walking in the direction of the camp. Officer William Chamberlain responded to the camp, did not locate anyone, but did find a fire burning in the main cabin. The Rochester Fire Department responded to extinguish the fire. Minimal damage was done to the building. With the assistance of Wareham and Marion Police, two males and two females were located and all four juveniles were questioned by Rochester Police.

All four have been charged with attempting to burn a building, trespassing, and breaking and entering. The resident's call and Officer Chamberlain's discovery averted the loss of the building.

After approving the minutes for the July 15 and August 12 meetings and the Executive Session minutes of August 1, the board met with NSTAR representative Donna Rosa who appeared before them seeking approval for a proposed conduit location on Shipyard Lane, which is west of Foster Street. The move was requested by the property owner due to the obstruction of the ocean view that the pole caused. There were no abutters present to dispute the move, therefore, the board unanimously approved the request.

The board then signed the following items:

board send a letter to Attorney Macchi expressing that they will not be placing this street acceptance on the October Special Town Meeting warrant as requested until the entire project is completed and all proper procedures are followed for road acceptances. The motion carried via unanimous vote.

The board also received a "thank you" note from outgoing School Superintendent Elizabeth "Betty" Quinn. "I want to thank you for making the occasion of my retirement so joyful," she wrote. "I have been blessed to work with outstanding School Committees, administrators, staff, parents, citizens and community leaders. Last, but not least, the students whom we serve make every day a joy. To end my career in such a wonderful circumstance is a privilege for which I am eternally grateful."

In other matters, the board:

- Agreed to not meet on Monday, September 2 due to the Labor Day holiday, but said they would hold a regular meeting on Tuesday, September 3 at 6:30 pm.
- Discussed planning some type of memorial for September 11 like neighboring Marion, who is planning to toll bells at the times the twin towers fell in New York.
- Unanimously voted to approve a petition from Verizon to locate a jointly-owned pole on Pine Street as requested.

At 7:00 pm the board met with members of the Board of Library Trustees to discuss their recent request to place an article on an upcoming Special Town Meeting warrant to allocate matching funds for the library expansion project. There was a concern expressed at last week's meeting over holding a Special Election so close to the State Election in November and the amount of time to properly post the Special Town Meeting.

Ms. Parker, in her capacity as Town Clerk, said she called the State Elections Office and they didn't recommend holding another election within three weeks of a State Election to avoid confusing absentee ballots; and the deadline to place anything on the State Election ballot had already passed.

"We're better off calling a Special Election at the end of November," Ms. Parker said. "There are concerns about recounts, if there's a recount on the state election, it could be held right on top of your election."

When the board suggested the Special Election ballot question could be held before the Town Meeting, Library Director Lucy Loomis said both she and the Board of Trustees felt having the Town Meeting vote first helped to "educate the public" on their issue. "I would hate to do it the other way around," she said.

With a Special Town Meeting already slated for October 7 to allow the Board of Assessors to set the tax rate, both the library proponents and Board of Selectmen said their best bet was to place the library funding article on that warrant and then hold the Special Election immediately thereafter on Wednesday, October 9.

The board voted unanimously to place the library funding article on the October 7 Town Meeting warrant, and voted via majority vote — with Selectman Parker in sole opposition — to hold a Special Election on October 9.

"I think to try and hit the voters with another override without knowing the impact on their pocket-books is unfair," Selectman Parker said. "You want your money approved before they get hit with (tax bills)."

"I don't think they're trying to deceive anybody,"

Rochester Special Town Meeting

August 26, 2002

By Kenneth J. Souza

A Special Town Meeting for the Town of Rochester was called to order by Town Moderator Greenwood Hartley in the Cafetorium of Rochester Memorial School on Monday, August 26 at 7:40 pm having noted the presence of a quorum of approximately 140 voters.

Mr. Hartley first reviewed some of the ground rules for Town Meeting and then proceeded with the sole article on the warrant, which was submitted by petition and was a "by-law change (which) requires a two-thirds vote to pass," Mr. Hartley explained.

ARTICLE 1 asked voters to rezone an estimated

60-acre parcel of land off High Street from "Industrial" to "Residential/Agricultural."

According to Planning Board member Chris Byron, at their last meeting they voted 3 to 2 to recommend passage of this article at Town Meeting.

At the request of the Board of Selectmen, Town Counsel Daniel Perry then made a presentation to Town Meeting. "Massachusetts zoning law is complicated, particularly in the area of protecting existing rights," Mr. Perry said. "Town Meeting has to understand that this landowner ... has taken steps to protect himself. He's filed two claims, one of which has already been approved. That has the effect of freezing the zoning as to the use of the property for three years. He's filed a second plan, which is more formal, but which appears to be approvable. Once approved that will be grandfathered ... for eight years. If the town chooses to change the zoning tonight, it almost certainly will have no impact (on the property) for eight years."

Industrial Development Commission (IDC) Chairman Gary Laboa also said the vote taken on this article won't have any effect on the rock-crushing facility being proposed by Sippican Realty Trust and which the petitioners are opposing.

"A lot of times people become reactive to problems by necessity," Mr. Laboa said. "From our point of view, this piece of land could possibly be a key piece in (Rochester's) industrial development. I understand the reaction of the residents in that area, I'm not standing here supporting the rock-crushing operation. But that's not what we're dealing with here tonight. We're dealing with industrial development ... that will help stabilize our tax base."

One of the petitioners and supporters of the zoning change, Claudia Butler, said they weren't trying to curtail business development in Rochester. They are simply concerned about rapid industrial growth in a residential area.

"It's my opinion that the existence of this property is a jumping-off point for industrial development ... it's going to act like a connect-the-dots," Ms. Butler said. "That industrial zone will be right in the backyards of all the houses on County Road. This type of industrial use is not in harmony with why we moved here."

Resident Bob Cummings said he agreed with Ms. Butler, but he felt more time was needed to look into other options. One of the major goals of the town's Master Plan was to expand the town's industrial area so as to broaden the tax base, he said. Removing a piece of property from industrial use defeated this purpose. As such, he moved to table the article which was defeated by majority vote.

Planning Board member Arnie Johnson said he voted against supporting this article because he felt the petitioners were being reactionary. "(The land owner's) rights are already protected and they've already appealed our original decision," he said. "Let's think past this incident and do things in a sensible manner."

Resident Heather Bare downplayed the concern over industry encroaching on residents. "We live in an area where trucks drive by all the time, we're used to it," she said. "It's part of living out in the middle of nowhere. Industrial Development has become a necessity in Rochester to broaden the tax base. We've been tolerating all kinds of traffic for 40 years."

Likewise, resident Frank Cabral said people should pay more attention to development in town and realize it's expanding. "If you love Rochester, love it. If you don't like it here, leave it," he said.

"This is not just my house ... this is our town," said petitioner Gary Florindo. "We understand we need a base of industrial money coming in, but we also understand that lives are going to be affected. All the traffic is going to go through County Road. I've spoken to a lot of these people here tonight. They moved to rural Rochester for the harmony. We are not condemning anyone's vote, but whatever you decide, we are the ones who are going to have the initial impact for the rest of our lives."

Based on the presentation made by Town Counsel Daniel Perry, resident Nick Besse felt the debate on Town Meeting floor was "pointless and futile," and that even if the rezoning article passed, it was "pretty much useless." With that, a motion was made to move the question, which passed via majority vote, thereby ending all discussion.

ARTICLE 1 narrowly passed by the required two-thirds majority — 98 to 48 — garnering only 2 votes more than the needed 96.

The Special Town Meeting was thereafter adjourned for the evening at 8:35 pm.

The Mattapoisett Yacht Club held its second annual "Race for Charity," on Saturday, July 20. Sailboats competed on this blustery day, in order to raise money to donate to their favorite charity. ### Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

(Following) is a copy of the letter I sent to the Board of Selectmen in Mattapoisett on July 23, 2002 concerning the Golf Course planned for a portion of the town. It is approximately 645 acres. Copies were sent to the Conservation Commission (ConCom), the Planning Board, Town Counsel, and State Representative William Straus. On July 27 I received a letter from Representative Straus with a copy of the environmental impact report. He stated that the appropriate time to raise these important issues would be when the Environmental Impact Report is released.

I have not received a response from any others, thus my concern.

If you would like to comment, you must address your concerns to Secretary Robert Durand; EOEA - MEPA Office; Attention: Arthur Pugsley, EOEA, #12683, Bay Club at Mattapoisett; 251 Causeway Street, Suite 900; Boston, MA 02114. Comments will be received until September 22.

"While attending the Planning Board meeting on the Bay Club (on July 15), I asked about access to the town forest as it is surrounded by this project. I was told by one of the Selectmen that access was over private land. It was my understanding and Mr. N. F. Tinkham specified that the old trail by the water tower was the access road (trail) as is stated in the deed.

I would like answers to the following questions. Is the request that the Selectmen (or whoever approves the construction permits) require the developer to provide mitigation in the form of development of the town forest for public use, including (not not limited to) vehicular access to the public, public parking, and development of trails and sanitary facilities at the forest. The role of any large housing development is to provide mitigation in the form of public benefit — it's not uncommon for a large development to have to fund public projects. I request that the Selectmen guarantee that the town forest is maintained and that adequate access is provided. This is not an unreasonable burden for such a large ($15,000,000) development.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter."

Sincerely,

To the Editor:

This week is the last opportunity to visit the Mattapoisett Museum and Carriage House for this summer. In fact, you have three days left in which to make that visit since the museum closes on Saturday, August 31.

People from out of town who have visited this summer have continuously remarked about what a "gem" this museum is and what a wonderful collection of our town's history is here. The Curator of a major local museum remarked during his visit: "You really have a great little museum here. It is well done!"

So, those of you who have never been in the museum — here's your last opportunity for the summer!

Sincerely,
Bette Roberts, Curator

DON'T GIVE UP

Perhaps you were turned down by a bank when you applied for a mortgage because your income was too low for the size of the loan desired. Don't give up, there's still hope.

Today, banks sell more than half of their mortgages on the secondary market made up of companies such as: Ginnie Mae, Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac. They pool mortgages, change them to securities and sell the stock to investors. These secondary buyers have strict income guidelines which may state, for example, that the total monthly payments may not exceed 25 to 30% of gross income. That's the bad news.

The good news is that loans NOT sold by banks into the secondary market are retained by them for their own investment. These banks have much more flexibility to establish their own income guidelines which may not be as strict.

Being turned down by one bank is not the end. Another bank may be more receptive to your loan request. If you call our office, we should be able to give you more specific advice and options.

ber 9 at the Congregational Church Community Center in Marion. New members are welcome to join the chorus simply by coming to the first rehearsal.

Rehearsals begin promptly at 7:30 pm every Monday evening, but singers are asked to arrive by 7:15 pm for the first rehearsal in order to register and receive music. Parking is available in the Marion General Store Parking lot on Front Street in the village.

All voices are welcome (soprano, alto, tenor, and bass), and male voices in the tenor and bass ranges are especially encouraged to sing with the chorus this year. As always, everyone who has sung with the chorus in past years will be welcomed back. The rehearsal hall is now handicapped-accessible.

Peter West, Director of the chorus, requests that both returning members and new members who, for good reason, cannot make the first rehearsal call him (508-997-3999), to let him know they intend to sing this year.

The chorus will be rehearsing for its 38th annual Christmas Concert, which will be on Sunday, December 8 and will feature as its main selection Daniel Pinkham's Christmas Cantata. A brass quintet will accompany the chorus.

Special Christmas music will follow an orchestral interlude, and includes "In Ecclesiis," by Giovanni Gabrieli, John Rutter's "Of a Rose" and his arrangement of "The Twelve Days of Christmas," Lauridsen's "Magnificat," "Baby, What You Goin' To Be," by Natalie

Now beginning its 38th season, the 90-member Sippican Choral Society is under the direction of Peter West, with Michelle Gordon as accompanist. The group performs at least two concerts every year, singing the works of the world's great composers, as well as works from the musical theater.

For further information about singing with the Sippican Choral Society this year, please Peter McDonald (508-997-3999). If you plan to sing this season, but cannot

Jay Gould, DVM

SUMMER HEAT

What can I do to make my dog more comfortable in the hot weather?

Leave your dog at home when you do errands. If you must take him in a car, leave the air conditioning on or the windows open, especially if you need to park. A closed car gets very hot very fast. Always have plenty of fresh cool water available. Walk your dog early in the morning or later in the evening when it is cooler.

Are certain breeds more susceptible to heat induced problems?

Yes. Dogs with short noses like bulldogs, pugs, Boston Terriers and Lhasa Apso's. These dogs have trouble breathing under the best of circumstances. When it is hot and they pant to cool themselves, they may experience swelling of their throats, making breathing even more difficult.

How can I help my dog when it is hot and he is panting hard?

Help him cool himself. Put him in an air conditioned room, wet him down and blow a fan over him, or let him chew ice cubes.

The Mattapoisett Free Public Library's "Words on Wheels (WOW)" Home Delivery Program is growing! Three new trike delivery people have been hired, in addition to their first rider, Ray Lemieux, to deliver library materials to patrons throughout the community.

Charlotte Price, Beth Joy Andrews, and Linda Duchaine join Mr. Lemieux in making weekly excursions to the Town Beach and Shipyard Park Band Concerts, as well as to homebound individuals with both temporary and permanent physical challenges that keep them from entering the library.

Free paperbacks and magazines are available to anyone who agrees to recycle these materials after reading them. Generic Library Cards may be redeemed at the library. WOW Program Brochures, which explain home delivery requirements, are also available. Just ask the Trike Riders!

Look under your couches, beds, and behind your car seats: Fines will be waived for any long-overdue materials that are returned to one of the library's Trike Riders. Anyone interested in having deliveries made to their homes or wanting more information should contact the library at 508-758-4171. ## Marion Walking Tour Books

The Sippican Historical and Preservation Society has just published self-guided walking tours of two of Marion's neighborhood districts — Wharves, Wood Shingles and Whaling Captains: Sippican Village from the 17th to Early 20th Century and From Coastal Schooners to Railroad Cars: A Walking Tour of Old Landing/Old Depot Areas of Marion, MA. Both tours were written by architectural historian and preservation consultant Edward Gordon, who gave three popular guided tours of these districts during the recent celebration of Marion's 150th anniversary.

The pocket-sized fold-out brochures discuss the historical development of each area, then provide a detailed examination of the many fascinating structures that comprise these neighborhoods. It is anticipated that walking tours of other Marion neighborhoods will be developed in the future. Brochures are available at the Historical Society headquarters, 139 Front Street, at the Elizabeth Taber Library, and at local businesses. The tours were printed with support from the Cape Cod Bank and Trust Company.

July Recap

The Marion Natural History Museum has run summer programs again this year. Currently, there is a second session of "Life Along the Shore" running. In July, two programs — "Watershed Explorations" and "Life Along the Shore" — explored the forests and waters of Marion. The students reported what they will remember and found.

• "Life Along the Shore" is a summer program at the Marion Natural History Museum. Children entering Grades 1 and 2 participated in a 10-day enrichment program on July 8-19. They enjoyed a beach scavenger hunt with underwater viewers. They also observed underwater creatures while seining in the shallow water at Silvershell Beach. The children were able to see and touch various crabs, silver sides, jelly fish, and mummichogs. There were ospreys, herring gulls, cormorants, and terns living in the marsh. The children conducted sand experiments. It was a lot of fun making beach-related crafts, playing games and making fish print t-shirts. The children kept a daily journal of all the interesting things they learned about and hands-on activities they enjoyed. The sea shore offered a rich learning opportunity for nature lovers of all ages.

• "Watershed Explorations" is a summer program for students entering Grades 3 and 4. Students visited several areas around town such as Silvershell Beach, the Sippican River, Holmes Woods (near Sippican School), several Sippican Lands Trust properties such as Gallison Woods, Brainards Marsh, and the Radio Tower Property. At each place they participated in investigations, educational games, and some water testings. One of the most spectacular days was a trip around Bird Island, generously arranged by Toby Burr of Burr Brothers Boatyard. Scott Durant from Burr Brothers took the group out and when they were just off the island scientists on the island invited them to come ashore for a brief tour of the island near the end of the tern nesting season.

Historic Walks Book

Walks Book #3 and #4 is now available for sale at the Mattapoisett Museum and Carriage House, 5 Church Street. This book combines two separate walks into one publication for a single $10 price. As with Walks Books #1 and #2, the new book includes many bits of history and stories about an earlier Mattapoisett. Walks #3 and #4 covers the general area north and west of the museum on Church Street.

All of the Walks Books are the work of Francis Rowland who was born and grew up in Mattapoisett some 90 years ago. Francis is indeed the town historian and he has willingly shared his memories in these books. The Mattapoisett Historical Museum is most appreciative of Mr. Rowland's many contributions to the history of the town. It is people like Francis Rowland who make Mattapoisett "special."

In addition to the newest Walks Book, the museum also has a most interesting reprint of an old relief map of Buzzards Bay made in 1904. The map indicates a number of spots long lost to many memories. When framed, this map makes a great gift for locals and visitors. The museum is also an outlet for the new Ned's Point Lighthouse book written by Betty and Bert Theriault.

Remember: the Mattapoisett Museum and Carriage House is open Tuesday - Saturday, 1:00 to 4:00 pm. Be sure to come and see the special summer exhibit, "Man's Work/Woman's Work."

MOVIE REVIEW

Reality Bytes

By Rob Gonsalves
<http://robsreviews.cjb.net>

S1MONE. Starring Al Pacino, Catherine Keener, and Rachel Roberts. Directed by Andrew Niccol. Running time: 117 minutes. MPAA rating: PG-13. At AMC Cinema 12 at the North Dartmouth Mall and Flagship Cinemas in New Bedford.

S1MONE seems to have fallen victim to Box-Office Curse #17: People won't go see movies about moviemaking. In this case, they're missing a compelling little fable from Andrew Niccol, whose artistic success, to these eyes, has been in inverse proportion to his box-office success: He wrote and directed 1997's superb Gattaca, and wrote 1998's overrated but lucrative The Truman Show (Peter Weir directed). S1MONE looks to go the way of Gattaca's brief life in uncrowded theaters, and while it's not on the level of Niccol's debut, it's entertaining and provocative enough.

The first mistake some critics are making is to assume that S1MONE is intended as a satire of the Hollywood and media machines. I don't think it is; the movie should really be called Viktor, after its protagonist Viktor Taransky (Al Pacino), a pompous and flailing film director whose mega-starlet leading lady (Winona Ryder in an amusing, if ill-timed for her defense, performance) has walked out on his latest production due to "creative differences." Growls Viktor, "Here's the difference: I'm creative, you're not." The movie half-years for the days when directors, not stars, called the shots, though this yearning is placed in the mouth of Viktor, who overlooks the fact that in the old days studio heads called the shots and directors were as powerless and interchangeable as the stars.

Computer wingnut Elias Koteas delivers Viktor's salvation on a platter (literally) — a disc containing programming to create a virtual actress. Yes, the technology is finally there, and only Viktor knows about it. After nine months he's created the perfect actress, Simone (Rachel Roberts), and plugged her into the role originally filled by his former female lead. Everyone loves Simone; the movie is a massive critical and popular hit, soon joined by another Taransky/Simone epic, and Simone becomes the first actress in Oscar history to tie with herself for Best Actress.

S1MONE isn't about media manipulation, though Niccol shows us plenty of it. Two reporters (Pruitt Taylor Vince and Jason Schwartzman) devote themselves to uncovering the truth about the never-seen-in-the-flesh Simone; studio head Elaine Christian (Catherine Keener), who's also Viktor's ex-wife, wants to meet the star who's made her so much richer. Like any good program, Simone does exactly what Viktor tells her to do; she never malfunctions (except for some pixillation due to insufficient memory during a satellite interview), and everything is perfect. Too perfect. Pacino plays Viktor subtly as an artistic windbag who grows to resent his own creation's stealing his thunder. Even his attempts to unmake her — there's a pretty funny clip from I Am Pig, supposedly Simone's "directorial debut" starring herself — just enhance her popularity.

On the surface, the movie appears to be another cautionary tale about being careful what you wish for, but under the surface we find a metaphor for fear of success on the wrong terms — selling out. Or, worse, getting the power to rise to your level of incompetence. We also see clips from Viktor's movies, and they're made to look gruesomely pretentious and melodramatic. Even the second one, based on a script he wrote nine years ago ("It's close to my heart"), looks terrible even though you figure the studio wouldn't have interfered to make it that way. By then, Viktor has enough clout to do what he wants — he made it that way.

That Viktor's two banal Simone movies are insanely successful, and that Simone branches off into advertising and recording, are probably Niccol's comments on what an increasingly numbered and uncritical public will accept as a diversion. But at the movie's heart is an artist's self-critique. Niccol could have told his three stories to date in novel form, blank verse, whatever; he chose to tell them in a medium that celebrates and rewards mediocrity more and more with each passing year. But if artists quit the medium in disgust, mediocrity wins. Like Viktor, Niccol knows how corrupt the game is, but he's willing to stay in it anyway, and he plays honorably.

Hub Harmonies

By Kenneth J. Souza
news@wanderer.com

Two of Boston's native veteran female vocalists have both recently released new CDs, taking yet another important step in their musical evolutions. Despite having kept a fairly low profile after their modestly successful band ventures in the image-oriented, "big hair" mid-1980s, it seems both are poised for a well-deserved and well-seasoned comeback of late. As a devoted fan of both, I couldn't be happier.

It's interesting to note how the careers of both Aimee Mann and Laurie Sargent have closely mirrored each other. Laurie fronted the modestly successful band Face to Face, which released three solid albums between 1984 and 1988 but never really hit it big save for the lone single "10-9-8." Aimee seemed to fare better around the same period as lead singer for 'Til Tuesday, which also released three albums before dissolving. They seemed to get a bigger boost from MTV, which put videos like "Voices Carry" into heavy rotation.

Both women became increasingly disheartened and disenchanted with the lack of support from big-name record labels, so in their second incarnations as solo artists, they sought out either smaller, independent record labels or managed to self-produce their own music with private companies. Laurie released a couple of solid sessions like Something With the Moon and Heads and Tales, and Aimee also released Whatever and I'm With Stupid before her critically-acclaimed Bachelor No. 2, which was subsequently commandeered by director Paul Thomas

Anderson for his film Magnolia and ultimately led to her music becoming the movie's soundtrack. Yet, despite modest success with these releases, both Aimee and Laurie still seemed to be waiting in the wings for the right time to step back into the lime-light.

Aimee has returned with Lost in Space, another solidly-written, well-crafted collection of songs from the heart. If you're familiar with Mann's previous output, however, you know that her cynical side can't help creeping into her music, and Lost in Space doesn't disappoint on this level, either.

In Aimee's world, even when everything seems to be going right, there's always a fly in the ointment to sing about — but I think that's always been part of her allure for me. Emotion without an edge can be dull and mundane, and those aren't words I'd ever use to describe Aimee Mann's songs. Even though she seems to have found her soulmate in fellow musician Michael Penn (Sean's brother), past relationships still seem to pervade her music.

That's not to say everything here is depressing, either. Mann can still craft bouncy and catchy riffs, and standout tracks like opener "Humpty Dumpty" and "Pavlov's Bell" are in line with anything from Bachelor No. 2 and Magnolia. In "Real Bad News" she slyly writes: "I've got love and anger / They come as a pair / You can take your chances / But buyer beware." If you go into Lost in Space with that honest disclaimer in mind, you're likely to find yourself as enthralled with the CD as I did.

Unlike Aimee, Laurie opted to try the band route again by joining forces with former Morphine members Dana Colley and Billy Conway (Laurie's significant other) as Twinemen, an eclectic and diverse trio of talent which proves the sum can indeed be greater than its parts. Their self-titled debut, Twinemen, is a wonderful pastiche of styles, with Laurie's lilting and powerful vocals at the front and center.

What's most interesting about Twinemen is how Laurie and the ex-Morphine guys seem to perfectly complement each other. If you listen to both Morphine's last album with the late Mark Sandman (The Night) and Laurie's last solo album (Heads and Tales), you'd be hard-pressed to imagine these diverse styles blending so well. Somehow, though, it works. I liken the style to "jazz meets R.E.M.," which isn't as far-fetched as you might think.

From the album opener, the infectious "Spinner," you'll find yourself tapping along in time to Conway's driving backbeat and singing Laurie's catchy lyrics. But Twinemen owes its much of its unique sound to Dana Colley, whose baritone saxophone can sound alternately like a grief-ridden wail and then a bombastic or joyful orchestra. There's nary a weak track among the ten here, but my favorites include "Signs of Life," "Who's Gonna Sing" and "Ronnie Johnson" (which sounds like something from Laurie's Something With the Moon session).

Both CDs are available at most retailers or directly online at www.aimeemann.com or www.twinemen.com.

The tour will take place at the Oak Grove Cemetery in New Bedford, where historic portrayals in period costume will take place at several gravesites along the tour route. This year's tour will focus on the older section of Oak Grove, where many of the city's oldest, distinguished families are buried.

The guided walking tours will step off from the Parker Street entrance (corner of Liberty) of Oak Grove Cemetery every ten minutes, beginning at 1:00 pm. The last tour will leave at 3:30 pm. The tour route encompasses approximately one mile in a 45-minute walk.

SALOME'S STARS

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) This week could offer more opportunities for ambitious Lambs eager to get ahead. But don't rush into making decisions until you've checked for possible hidden problems.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Some light begins to shine on professional and/or personal situations that have long eluded explanation. Best advice: Don't rush things. All will be made clear in time.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Although you might want to protest what seems to be an unfair situation, it's best to keep your tongue and temper in check for now. The full story hasn't yet come out.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Work prospects are back on track. But watch what you say. A thoughtless comment to the wrong person — even if it's said in jest — could delay or even derail your progress.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) A colleague might try to goad you into saying or doing the wrong thing. Best to ignore the troublemaker, even if he or she riles your royal self. Your supporters stand with you.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Be careful not to let your on-the-job zealousness create resentment with co-workers who might feel you shut them out. Prove them wrong by including them in your project.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Although it's not quite what you hoped for, use your good business sense to make the most of what you're being offered at this time. Things will improve down the line.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A more positive picture of what lies ahead is beginning to take shape. But there are still too many gaps that need to be filled in before you make definitive plans.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Continue to keep a tight hold on the reins so that you don't charge willy-nilly into a situation that might appear attractive on the surface but lack substance.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) You still need to demand those answers to your questions. Remember, your wise counseling earns you respect, but it's your search for truth that gives you wisdom.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) You'll find people are happy to help you deal with some difficult situations. And, of course, knowing you, you'll be happy to return those favors anytime. Won't you?

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Give that special someone in your personal life a large, loving dollop of reassurance. That will go a long way toward restoring the well-being of your ailing relationship.

BORN THIS WEEK: You are a delightful paradox. You like things neat and tidy. But you're also a wonderful host who can throw a really great party.

Jesus Say To President Bush?" Most people think they could do a better job than he's doing, but if we're honest, none of us would really like to be in his position day in and day out. What words of affirmation would Jesus have and what direction would He try to provide. Come on out this week and find out. At South Coast Community Church their motto is "helping people say, 'Yes!' to God." God really does have a wonderful plan for our lives and Sunday mornings at SCCC are designed to help you explore the difference a relationship with Christ can make. If you attend one of their services you'll hear a practical message from the Bible, listen to some upbeat contemporary Christian music, watch a drama, comedy skit or video clip that relates to the morning's topic, and Rehearsals will begin on September 11, 2002 at 7:30 pm in the United Parish of Fall River, 745 Wilson Road in Fall River, MA.

Always on the lookout for new talent, the SouthCoast Community Chorale readily welcomes new members. Requirements include attendance at rehearsals on a consistent basis, ability to match pitch with other chorale voice parts, payment of semester dues, and purchase of music. Typically, membership is drawn from the SouthCoast region, from Providence, RI to Plymouth, MA, including the Taunton and Brockton areas.

If you are interested in joining with others to create a musical experience you may show up for rehearsal on September 11 or one of the following two Wednesday evenings, or you may contact Polly Labonte, Chorale Publicist, at 508-763-2172. The SouthCoast Community Chorale is funded, in part, by grants from the Fall River and Westport Cultural Councils, local agencies supported in turn by the Massachusetts Cultural Council.
